Dear Prospective Parent,

Thank you for your interest in Calvary Episcopal School/Calvary Episcopal College Preparatory. We think you will be pleased with the educational opportunity that Calvary offers you and your family.

Our purpose at Calvary Episcopal School/Calvary Episcopal College Preparatory is to provide a learning environment for students to live, work and play together in a loving, nurturing Christian atmosphere. We strive to enrich the lives of our students by offering a superior academic climate that fosters creativity, self-expression, natural curiosity, responsibility, sociability and physical well being. We encourage parental involvement, and look forward to working with you. The academic days at Calvary are filled with many exciting programs and activities. The Board of Trustees, faculty and staff are continuously striving to provide the finest educational experiences possible for your child.

Enclosed in your packet you will find the following: application for admission, enrollment procedures, program information, tuition schedule for the 2009-2010 school year, request for financial aid information, and general information. Please read all information carefully. If you have any further questions regarding the school, please feel free to contact us at the number listed above or visit our web site at www.ces-richmond.org.

There will be limited spaces available for the 2009-2010 school year, as several of our grades are at or near capacity this year. Our Admissions Committee will carefully review all applications and will strive to match candidates who will most benefit from an education at Calvary. If you are interested in our school, we would urge you to submit your application at your earliest convenience so that we may begin the admissions process.

Again, thank you for considering Calvary Episcopal School/Calvary Episcopal College Preparatory.

For All God's Children,

Malcolm Smith, Jr.
