Summer, 2004

Enjoying Your Summer!

We hope everyone is having a great summer. Believe it or not, we're just three weeks off from the beginning of a new school year. Mark your calendars...classes begin Monday, August 16!

to joining the Calvary faculty.

Pam Milton will be the other pre-kindergarten teacher this year. Ms. Milton taught at CES last year. She was the middle school journalism and French teacher, and also taught Bible classes. You also see Ms. Milton in chapel each morning, playing the organ.

Homeroom Rosters Posted

"When will I find out who my teacher is?" All class rosters will be posted on the school office front door and our website on Monday, Aug. 2.

Welcome to New Faculty

We will have several new or reassigned teachers who are as excited as our students about the new school year! You can look at their full biographies on our website at ces-richmond.org. The following are brief biographical sketches:

Jane Alspaugh will be the new pre-kindergarten teacher. Ms. Alspaugh has taught early childhood classes for over thirty years. She worked in a number of public school classrooms during her career, and looks forward

Melissa Hamon is the second grade math, science and social studies teacher. She is a native Virginian, but grew up in North Carolina and Tennessee and graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville with a BS in elementary education with a specialty in early childhood education and is certified K-8. Ms. Hamon and her husband, Rob, have lived all over the United States due to Rob's naval career, and moved to Sugar Land in 1998. When Ms. Hamon's son, Christopher became a Calvary Crusader, she followed by becoming a room mother, an active volunteer, a substitute teacher, and Ms. Beal's long-term substitute last year.

Angie Fletcher grew up in Tyler, Texas and received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Texas Tech University. Ms. Fletcher earned her teaching certificate in English Education from the University of Southwest Louisiana in What's Up at Calvary?

Lafayette, Louisiana. She taught 6th, 7th, and 8th graders at St. George's Episcopal School in New Orleans before she had twins in the summer of 1997. Ms. Fletcher is happy to resume her teaching career as the language arts teacher for the third grade at Calvary. Her twins will be in 1st grade at Calvary.

Marilyn King will teach third grade math, science, and social studies. She grew up in the Rosenberg-Richmond area and graduated from Lamar Consolidated High School. Ms. King earned her degree from the University of Houston with a BS in Elementary Education and received a Masters in Education from Prairie View A&M. Ms. King has taught 35 years in public schools as an elementary and middle school teacher.

Kathy Digoy is the new 5th Grade Language Arts teacher. She received her undergraduate degree while living in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Ms. Digoy has completed an alternative certification program through A.C.T.-Houston and has been accepted to the Master of Education Program in Curriculum and Instruction at the University of Houston. Ms. Digoy has a daughter in college and a son in the 3rd grade at Calvary. Our fifth graders will remember Ms. Digoy as a substitute teacher in fourth grade last year.

A'Dell Morris is returning to the Richmond area after being away for the past seventeen years. For the past seven years she was athletic director and coach at Trinity School of Midland. Ms. Morris earned her degree in Health/Physical Education at Texas A&M University. She will be taking the athletic director's position at CES, and will coach girls' volleyball and basketball.

Ana Moreno-Holladay is originally from Panama City in the Republic of Panamá. She attended San Francisco State University where she graduated with a Business Degree in International Marketing. Ms. Holladay attended the University of St. Thomas graduate program in conjunction with Region IV Alternative Certification and completed her teacher training with certifications in Bilingual/ESL instruction in addition to Early Childhood. She taught 4th grade for five years in Fort Bend ISD. She became certified to teach Secondary Spanish in 1999 and taught high school level Spanish at Garcia Middle School for another five years. Ms. Holladay will teach elementary and middle school Spanish at CES.

New Look for Chapels

Parents and visitors are always welcome to join us for one of our daily chapels. There will be a few changes in chapel format this year. We will have the order of the service printed so that visitors and parents can follow along.

Matriculation Chapels are also new for this year. These special chapel ceremonies will recognize and record the special event of new students who become members of

CES. Since this is our first year to have Matriculation Chapels, all students (not just those who are new to CES) will have an opportunity to be recognized this year and sign the Matriculation Book. These special chapels are scheduled for August 23, 25 and 27. Parents will be notified of the date of the chapel for their children. (Dress Uniforms will be required at these chapels. Please be sure that students have Dress Uniforms by these dates.)

Pre-K Classes Full

Both Pre-K classes are full and now have a waiting list. Spaces are still available in other grade levels. If any of our parents know of someone interested in CES, please refer them to the school office, as we are still registering for the fall semester.

Used Uniform Sale

There will be a used uniform sale, Tuesday, August 3rd, Multi-purpose Room, 11 am to 7pm. Parents are urged to donate students out grown clothes to Calvary before the sale so clothes can be sorted. Clothing can be brought to school Monday-Thursday of this week, 9am-2pm.

Uniform Reminder: The navy pants and shorts and the polo shirts without the Calvary embroidery are no longer allowed, but we will accept them and they will be donated to Helping Hands.

LOGOS Information

LOGOS, the Wednesday afternoon/evening church/school program will soon be kicking off it's second year. You will be receiving information in the mail about the program, and how to register. You can also go to the church website at www.calvaryrichmond.org for additional information.

From the Development Office

You should have recently received a letter from Ms. Roberts in the Development Office inviting you to participate in a school "Yellow Pages" program. This provides a service to parents who would like to advertise their business within our school family. Ads are due back to Ms. Roberts by Aug. 6. If you did not receive a letter explaining the program, please call Ms. Roberts at 281-342-3161, extension 25.
