What's Up at Calvary?

September 30, 2003

Welcome New Crusaders!

This week six new students enrolled at CES and another is in the process of taking his entrance exams! We are excited to have these new Crusaders: Isabelle Malone, PK; Jonathan Fletcher, K; Emma Fletcher, K; Ireland Malone, 2nd; Jeffery Peck, 4th; Heather Snider, 5th.

Calvary Float Wins 3rd!

Congratulations to Ms. Shofner and her wonderful float crew! The CES float won 3rd place in the parade. Our students looked great in their costumes representing their future careers. Ms. Shofner wanted to thank everyone for the "team effort and the Calvary Family for pulling together to accomplish a wonderful goal, having the kids have a great time, having a safe float and getting our Calvary name out into the community."

Thanks to everyone who donated jeans, water, boots, the trailer and Barbie Daniels, of Noah's Little Ark was a real lifesaver as an advisor. Special thanks to: Lynn Lassiter, Karisha Kerr, Sylvia Perez, Melanie Mouch, Julie Duty, Roxie Strothers, Mona Smith, Debra Millard, Jessie Gonzales and Kim and Brad Whichard, who drove the float.

Other helpers included Sean Farrelly and Spencer Shofner in painting and Patrick Farrelly in adding the skirt to the float and covering the moving steers in leather.

County Fair Art Winner

Last week our art teacher, Ms. Dennison delivered 171 pieces of artwork to the Fair for judging in the annual rodeo art contest. This represents 12 middle school pieces and 159 elementary pieces, one from every elementary student.

We are excited to announce that Natalie Webb, 7th grade student has won an outstanding rosette for her self portrait "4th of July." Congratulations to Natalie and Ms. Dennison for this artistic accomplishment. If you are at the fair, drop by Building C to look at all the wonderful art work!

Episcopal School Sunday on Oct. 5.

Middle School Stuff

Eighth graders will visit Episcopal High School on Monday, Nov. 3. Students will be carpooling and should arrive about 10 a.m. and leave about 12:30 p.m. Episcopal High School will provide lunch for the students. Parents who are willing to drive should let Ms. Mann know.

Anyone interested in applying for EHS will want to attend their open house on Oct. 28 from 7-9 p.m. Mrs. Koehler in admissions will schedule an admissions interview with students, before they actually submit their packet.

Auction chairpersons are needed in middle school, particularly 7th/8th grades. Anyone interested in being a chairperson, please contact Ms. Burke or Ms. Armour.

6th and 7th grade retreats were great fun! The camp counselors always compliment CES students. The seventh graders enjoyed beautiful weather last week at TBarM Ranch. Although 6th graders had to deal with lots of rain at Camp Allen, the chaperones reported that “the kids never complained!”

Episcopal School Sunday

Each year CES celebrates Episcopal School Sunday by inviting teachers, students and parents to join the Calvary Episcopal Church family at one of the Sunday Services, 8:45 or 11:00. Our students will be a part of the services acting as readers, ushers as well as playing hand chimes and singing. Please mark your calendar and join us for
